

INDIAN IMPERIAL HERITAGE CRAFT EMBROIDERIES PRIVATE VIEWING IN GENEVA

Date : Thursday 17 June 2010

Time : 7pm to 9pm

Venue : 10 quai Gustave Ador, 1207 Geneva, 3rd floor (door bell – Randhawa)

Event : Private view & sale of Indian Imperial heritage Embroideries revived by PATINA
Drinks & Indian snacks around Shon Randhawa and her creations

PARSI GHARA, CHICKANKARI & THREAD EMBROIDERIES

SHON RANDHAWA PRESENTS HER EXCLUSIVE COLLECTION BY PATINA

Treasure invites you to view an exquisite collection of hand embroidered jackets, dresses, tunics and shawls from PATINA.

Discover the Indian imperial heritage crafts of Parsi Ghara, Chickankari & Thread embroideries which PATINA is reviving & blending into modern fashion styles. Prices range from CHF 200 to CHF 2'000.

*Treat yourself to a unique and distinctive garment whose purchase will benefit the work of Treasure with 10% of all sales supporting Treasure while also sustaining the unique embroidery techniques of India.

(We ask for a voluntary donation of CHF 10 per person at the door to benefit Treasure's school project).

The private view & sale of Patina embroideries benefit children's primary education and is helping to rebuild the primary school of Pomgaon, Maharashtra, India

www.childrenaretreasure.org

RSVP - Kindly confirm your attendance prior to the event (by June 15th) by sending us a mail: kanchan@childrenaretreasure.org